1. Summary

Summary

Buffy never came back after being kicked out of her home. She disappeared with only Faith and Spike having any idea of where to. With her not being in the fight against the First, a lot more people lost their lives. The survivors; Willow, Xander, Dawn, Giles, Faith, and Spike; made their way to LA in an attempt to find a way to live without the dead haunting their every thought.

Meanwhile our golden slayer now resides in paradise with everyone she lost except her mother. Now immortal she builds a new life and heals from the pain that's followed her since being called. Quickly she becomes the most highly decorated warrior on the side of the good. The powers she now possess' and one of the many titles she holds gives her the respect of anyone who knows of the supernatural throughout the dimensions.

Everyone believes that Buffy was separated from her past till the Scoobies diedâ€¦ but that's about to change.

When Buffy's current problem, a demon trying to take over the Powers That Be, learns certain information he travels through the dimensions hell bent on destroying Angel and anyone who gets in his way. Our slayer must now come back to her original dimension to save the lives of her past. While doing so she must do everything in her power to keep the secrets she knows of things backing up from her calling to the beginning of time, stuff she's hidden since before her seventeenth birthday in order to protect not only her life but the lives of everyone she loves.

That's not allâ€¦

Buffy has been fighting with the Powers on the ultimate decision of what will come to the Scoobies and the Fang Gang. This is her opportunity to save them from their final fate, fighting in the slaughter that will end their world. If she succeeds they will be spared and will join her in happiness. If not, they will die and that's something she can't let happen.

Hello! Ok, I have had this on file for months now and finally decided to put it out. I have no idea when it will be updated. I'm basically just seeing if anyone is interested. **

With that in mind, if you are reading my other Buffy story or any of my other stories, do not expect an update. I am a sophomore in high school with finals approaching. The school board has attempted to make testing easier by letting us have two classes a day, for three hours and twenty minutes each. My geometry teacher is insane, my language arts teacher is a witch, and my chemistry teacher is the most boring person on the planet after my brother. I am going to die.

Oh well! So, if you want more tell me or favorite and follow and I'll try to get some updating done.

Love,

2. Prophecies

The Warrior Three

From the light and the dark they shall come

On the day soon before the millennium end

Three shall come unlike no other

All faster and stronger than the line of the mother

For she shall be a Chosen one

The savior above her line of duty

The father shall come from deep in darkness

Till a curse did fall and change direction

The two shall meet on the day of Mohra

For the blood will change the ensouled immortal

And they will produce the three of power

And darkness will not defeat them

The oldest shall be from knowledge of the mind

Wiser than any scholar available to find

The middle shall train of combat and war

Quick as the blades she will wield forever more

And the youngest shall be of magic's fount

A witch that will exceed beyond capable count

With their parents they will not fail

And will save dimensions beyond repair

For they fight with truth and good shall triumph

And immortal blood will run through their veins

Able to defend the helpless for all time

The Chosen and Her Champion

At the age of fifteen she shall be called

A golden girl to fight dark's black night

And she shall like the sun to all in plight

Her other half will be of the dark

A demon of night but containing a soul of the day

And they shall fight together as one

But if he walk away from the girl of light

His redemption and salvation

And the mate of the demon that lives within

They both shall fall

She to despair of her loved ones' doings

He to the darkness that envelopes him

If this shall occur their dimension will die

And only in paradise will they reunite

These are two prophecies that will be used throughout the story. The Chosen and Her Champion is another version of what kyrumption, it's just in another text. **
